

Part II: Determining Meaning- Match the vocabulary words to their definition.

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| _____ 1. fatalist | A. Bustle; fuss; bother |
| _____ 2. aloof | B. Modest |
| _____ 3. clandestine | C. Reserved; remote |
| _____ 4. shamming | D. Adept; expert |
| _____ 5. proficient | E. One who believes all events are predetermined and inevitable |
| _____ 6. ado | F. Kept secret to conceal an improper purpose |
| _____ 7. unassuming | G. Putting on a false appearance |

Anne Frank: Diary of A Young Girl

Vocabulary List 3-Vocabulary in Context

March 10, 1943- August 10, 1943

Part I: Read each of the following sentences. Each sentence contains an underlined vocabulary word. Use the context clues, combined with your prior knowledge, and write a definition for each word. DO NOT USE ANY RESOURCES TO HELP YOU WITH THE DEFINITIONS!

Name _____

Date _____ Hr. _____

1. . . . the burglars disappeared and the only sounds that Mr. Van Daan could hear were the heartbeats of the frightened fatalist herself. _____

2. For myself, I remain silent and aloof, and I shall not shrink from the truth any longer _____

3. It will be our turn to hand in our radio next month. Koophuis has a clandestine baby set at home that he will let us have to take the place of our big Phillips. _____

4. I get on better by shamming a bit, instead of my old habit of telling everyone exactly what I think. _____

5. You are already proficient in the theory, it's only the practice that you lack. _____

6. First, I hear a sound like a fish gasping for breath, this is repeated nine or ten times, then with much ado and interchanged with little smacking sounds, the lips are moistened _____

7. The former is the most unassuming of all at table. He looks first to see if everyone else has something. He needs nothing himself, for the best things are for the children. _____
