

Anne Frank: Diary of A Young Girl

Vocabulary List 4-Vocabulary in Context

August 18, 1943- January 6, 1944

Name _____

Date _____ Hr. _____

Part I: Read each of the following sentences. Each sentence contains an underlined vocabulary word. Use the context clues, combined with your prior knowledge, and write a definition for each word. DO NOT USE ANY RESOURCES TO HELP YOU WITH THE DEFINITIONS!

1. Mr. Dussel begins, does not always scrape well, but scrapes incessantly, glancing right and left. _____
_____
2. . . . the wonderful news of Italy's capitulation came in. _____
_____
3. The atmosphere is so oppressive, and sleepy and as heavy as lead. _____
_____
4. And when I asked him . . . whether I should congratulate or condole, he answered that it didn't matter to him. _____
_____
5. He has become very tolerant. _____
_____
6. I imagine a mother as a woman who, in the first place shows great tact, especially towards her children when they reach our age, and who does not laugh at me if I cry about something--not pain, but other things--like "Mums" does. _____
_____
7. One thing, which perhaps may seem rather fatuous, I have never forgiven her. _____
_____