

March 1, 1944 – March 31, 1944

Part I: Read each of the following sentences. Each sentence contains an underlined vocabulary word. Use the context clues, combined with your prior knowledge, and write a definition for each word. DO NOT USE ANY RESOURCES TO HELP YOU WITH THE DEFINITIONS!

1. I finally managed to ask him today whether he didn't find my chatter a nuisance; he only said: "It's okay, I like it!" _____

2. I can tell by Peter's face that he thinks just as much as I do, and when Mrs. Van Daan yesterday evening said scoffingly: "The thinker!" I was irritated. _____

3. That's all I was--a terrible flirt, coquettish and amusing. _____

4. I would never have dreamed of cribbing from anyone else. I shared my sweets generously, and I wasn't conceited. _____

5. I couldn't understand it, I was taken by surprise, and the only way I could keep up some bearing was by being impertinent. _____

6. . . . I know I am not prejudiced, I don't exaggerate so much, I am more precise and adroit and because of this--you may laugh--I feel superior to her in a great many things. _____

March 1, 1944 – March 31, 1944

Part I: Read each of the following sentences. Each sentence contains an underlined vocabulary word. Use the context clues, combined with your prior knowledge, and write a definition for each word. DO NOT USE ANY RESOURCES TO HELP YOU WITH THE DEFINITIONS!

1. I finally managed to ask him today whether he didn't find my chatter a nuisance; he only said: "It's okay, I like it!" _____

2. I can tell by Peter's face that he thinks just as much as I do, and when Mrs. Van Daan yesterday evening said scoffingly: "The thinker!" I was irritated. _____

3. That's all I was--a terrible flirt, coquettish and amusing. _____

4. I would never have dreamed of cribbing from anyone else. I shared my sweets generously, and I wasn't conceited. _____

5. I couldn't understand it, I was taken by surprise, and the only way I could keep up some bearing was by being impertinent. _____

6. . . . I know I am not prejudiced, I don't exaggerate so much, I am more precise and adroit and because of this--you may laugh--I feel superior to her in a great many things. _____

Part II: Determining Meaning- Match the vocabulary words to their definition.

_____ 1. nuisance

_____ 2. scoffingly

_____ 3. coquettish

_____ 4. conceited

_____ 5. impertinent

_____ 6. adroit

A. Characteristic of a woman who makes teasing romantic overtures

B. Skillful & adept under pressure

C. Bother

D. Characterized by holding an unusually high opinion of oneself

E. Mockingly

F. Improperly forward or bold

Part II: Determining Meaning- Match the vocabulary words to their definition.

_____ 1. nuisance

_____ 2. scoffingly

_____ 3. coquettish

_____ 4. conceited

_____ 5. impertinent

_____ 6. adroit

A. Characteristic of a woman who makes teasing romantic overtures

B. Skillful & adept under pressure

C. Bother

D. Characterized by holding an unusually high opinion of oneself

E. Mockingly

F. Improperly forward or bold

Anne Frank: Diary of A Young Girl

Name _____

March 1, 1944 – March 31, 1944 p. 161-194

Date _____ Hr. _____

Part 6 Questions

Use complete sentences to answer the following questions.

1. What do the occupants of the hiding place think the burglar has?
2. Who asks if they can trust Peter and Anne alone in the attic?
3. What does Anne do to try to stop thinking?
4. What is Anne holding to her face?
5. Why is Anne holding the answer to #134 to her face?
6. What is Mrs. Van Daan's outlook on the war at the moment?
7. What does Mr. Van Daan do to cope with the stresses of his life?
8. What would Mrs. Frank love to eat?
9. What does optimistic mean? Who is the most optimistic about the war's progress?
10. What does Henk talk about to the family?
11. Who has been called up for digging? Does he end up going? Explain why he does or doesn't.
12. What was Peter not doing that evening that he would have time to talk with Anne?
13. What do neither Anne nor Peter do?
14. While Anne does not enjoy the frequent discussions of politics, there is one thing she believes to be perfect about the political situation. What is it?
15. What do the gentlemen do as they sit around listening to the radio?
16. What inevitably happens at the end of the radio speeches?
17. Why does Mrs. Frank forbid Anne to go upstairs with Peter?
18. Who spoke on Dutch News from London?
19. About what did the report on Dutch News from London talk?
20. What is the title Anne would choose for her diary?
21. Who does Anne speak about in the beginning of her entry on March 31, 1944? Of what country does she speak?
22. What country still has one million Jews there, according to Anne?

Digging Deeper Questions : Use complete sentences to answer the following questions.

Remember "cite evidence" means to quote the author's words from the text and indicate page numbers where the text can be found

1. (Tuesday, March 7, 1944) Anne talks about her friendships before going into hiding. After everything that has occurred between then and now, do you think Anne would prefer having many friends or a few really good friends? Explain by citing at least 2 pieces of evidence.
2. (Tuesday, March 14, 1944) Why has the quality of food in the "Secret Annex" gone down drastically? How would you respond to eating the food Anne must eat? Cite evidence to support your answer

Anne Frank: Diary of A Young Girl

Name _____

March 1, 1944 – March 31, 1944 p. 161-194

Date _____ Hr. _____

Part 6 Questions

Use complete sentences to answer the following questions.

1. What do the occupants of the hiding place think the burglar has?
2. Who asks if they can trust Peter and Anne alone in the attic?
3. What does Anne do to try to stop thinking?
4. What is Anne holding to her face?
5. Why is Anne holding the answer to #134 to her face?
6. What is Mrs. Van Daan's outlook on the war at the moment?
7. What does Mr. Van Daan do to cope with the stresses of his life?
8. What would Mrs. Frank love to eat?
9. What does optimistic mean? Who is the most optimistic about the war's progress?
10. What does Henk talk about to the family?
11. Who has been called up for digging? Does he end up going? Explain why he does or doesn't.
12. What was Peter not doing that evening that he would have time to talk with Anne?
13. What do neither Anne nor Peter do?
14. While Anne does not enjoy the frequent discussions of politics, there is one thing she believes to be perfect about the political situation. What is it?
15. What do the gentlemen do as they sit around listening to the radio?
16. What inevitably happens at the end of the radio speeches?
17. Why does Mrs. Frank forbid Anne to go upstairs with Peter?
18. Who spoke on Dutch News from London?
19. About what did the report on Dutch News from London talk?
20. What is the title Anne would choose for her diary?
21. Who does Anne speak about in the beginning of her entry on March 31, 1944? Of what country does she speak?
22. What country still has one million Jews there, according to Anne?

Digging Deeper Questions : Use complete sentences to answer the following questions.

Remember "cite evidence" means to quote the author's words from the text and indicate page numbers where the text can be found

1. (Tuesday, March 7, 1944) Anne talks about her friendships before going into hiding. After everything that has occurred between then and now, do you think Anne would prefer having many friends or a few really good friends? Explain by citing at least 2 pieces of evidence.
2. (Tuesday, March 14, 1944) Why has the quality of food in the "Secret Annex" gone down drastically? How would you respond to eating the food Anne must eat? Cite evidence to support your answer